Attorneys for Plaintiffs Sandy Cooper
and Garden Meadow, Inc.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

SANDY COOPER, an individual, GARDEN
MEADOW, INC., a Connecticut Corporation,

Plaintiffs,

vs.

GALYFORD (HK) LIMITED, a Chinese
Company,

Defendant.

Case No. 2:13-cv-01520-JAD-NJK

ORDER GRANTING

REQUEST TO ENLARGE TIME FOR SERVICE

(Second Request)

Plaintiffs Sandy Cooper and Garden Meadow, Inc. ("Plaintiffs"), by and through their attorneys of record, Jolley Urga Woodbury & Little, hereby notify the Court of the status of service of the complaint in the above matter.

Plaintiffs filed this action on August 22, 2013. (Doc. No. 1.) Plaintiffs then attempted, unsuccessfully, to effectuate service on Defendant pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(f)(1) and the Hague Convention on Service Abroad of Judicial and Extrajudicial Documents (hereinafter the "Hague Convention"). Although aware that the 120-day service limit of Rule 4(m) does not apply to service in a foreign country under Rule 4(f), Plaintiffs deemed it prudent to advise the Court of the status of service and filed a request to enlarge time for service. (Doc. No. 6.) The principal purpose of the request was to inform the Court and make a record of the problems with

1 serving the Defendant since at some point Plaintiffs will be seeking a default. The request
 2 attached a letter from the Chinese Ministry of Justice (the "Ministry") refusing to effectuate
 3 service. (Id. at Ex. 1.) This Court granted an order providing until February 13, 2014 to effect
 4 service. (Doc. No. 7.)

5 The process of investigating the reasons proffered by the Ministry for refusing to 6 effectuate service was somewhat complex. It involved re-evaluating the complaint filed in this
 7 action and comparing it with its counterpart version translated into Chinese. After finding that 8 the documents presented to the Ministry were proper, Plaintiffs sent the documents back to the 9 Ministry again asking it to effect service. (See Letter dated January 9, 2014 to Ministry, attached
 10 hereto as Ex. 1.) To Plaintiffs' knowledge, the Ministry has not effected service as of the date of 11 this filing.¹

12 Plaintiffs request that the Court set a status check for August 13, 2014 regarding service
 13 and, to the extent the Court deems appropriate, that the time to serve be extended to that date.

14 Dated this 13th day of February 2013.

 United States Magistrate Judge

¹ Plaintiffs encountered similar difficulties in serving Galyford's alter ego, Ningbo Xingqiang Metallic Products Co. Ltd. ("Ningbo"), in the companion case of Cooper, et al v. Ningbo, 2:12-cv-00698-JCM-GWF. The Ministry tendered one excuse after another in refusing to serve, finally effecting service after 11 months.
